DAVE KEELING

“He made it funny and entertaining and helped me realise that revision can be fun”

“Humour is social self-esteem, it is an intrinsic part of the human condition” - The Little Book of Laughter

6' 2" and ginger, Dave Keeling is a professional actor and has been a 'stand-up' educationalist (or kinaesthetic and passionate) for over 10 years working the length and breadth of the country with teachers, pupils and parents.

He is developing a particular niche working some of the most disaffected students around and immediately wins over even the most reluctant of audiences:

“I am going to try harder and think positively. He made it funny and entertaining and helped me realise that revision can be fun”

“Nobody else is going to do it for us He made everyone think and realise how important it is to prepare for life and that we need to get the results to get there”

His Events are high on energy and entertainment value covering in a very practical and down-to-earth way a range of areas including confidence, motivation, the brain – how it works and how amazing it is, memory skills, managing change, visionary skills, improvisation, forum theatre, revision techniques, (did I mention memory skills?) success and creativity in the classroom, not to mention a little bit of magic!!!

Having trained as a professional actor at The London Academy of Music And Dramatic Art Dave has worked extensively in theatre and television. He also writes and performs comedy something that has taken him from Bolton to Las Vegas and then usually back to Bolton again.

It's Dave's inimitable sense of humour, enthusiasm and ability to engage with everyone that makes him an ideal choice for keynote speeches, INSET days or motivational events for young people. Dynamic, energetic and not a bad singing voice to boot, Dave will create a unique and inspirational experience that no one will forget. Generally speaking you won't have met anyone like Dave before.

Dave's skills as a performer and stand up comedian also make him the perfect choice to Host/MC your conference. Injecting your day with verve and wit, Dave can provide a dynamic link between speakers and key themes whilst keeping the energy levels up all day (and night if needed!!!).

Here are some comments from happy clients who have seen Dave in action:

“The students thoroughly enjoyed your presentation and left the hall buzzing with enthusiasm”

“Fabulous, highly motivated, cannot help but be moved by this speaker. Inspired me to make much greater effort at including fun in future lessons”
